Making Strides Against Breast Cancer Walk

On October 21st, RAHMA Mercy Clinic participated in American Cancer Society's annual breast cancer awareness walk. The breast cancer walk was implemented by the American Cancer Society to honor breast cancer survivors, bring awareness to breast cancer, and to raise money for American Cancer Society's fight against breast cancer.

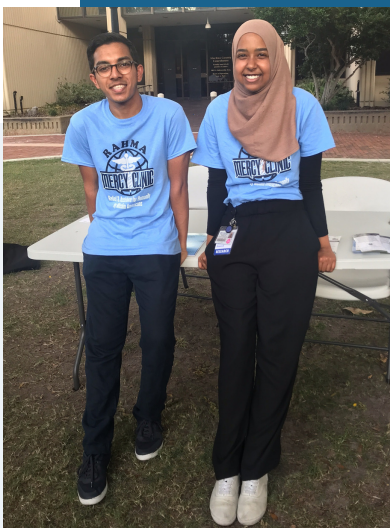

The RAHMA team was spearheaded by Faheema Syed who did an amazing job putting the team together for the walk. We would like to extend our sincerest thank you to Faheema for all the effort she put into making this an amazing day.

HealthStreet's 2nd Annual Night of Dance

On October 22nd, RAHMA Clinic participated in HealthStreet's 2nd Annual Night of Dance at Bo Diddley's Plaza. HealthStreet is a UF organization that aims to "reduce disparities by bridging gaps in healthcare and health research."

Their annual Night of Dance Event brings together 40 of Gainesville's prominent health organizations to increase access to health information. Pictured on the left are coordinators Yasmin Ali and Raihan Noman who got an opportunity to interact and table with amazing health organizations across Gainesville!

International Day of Peace

Pictured on the right is volunteer Ali Mohamed and Coordinator Ronny Samra at the annual International Day of Peace Event in Bo Diddley Plaza. The event was extremely successful with RAHMA able to extend its outreach to individuals in the Gainesville community who have not previously heard of the clinic before.

Coordinator Ronny was even interviewed by Humans of Gainesville saying "...we just want as many people as possible to know about what we're doing, in case anyone needs the care, needs the help, let them know that they can come in and that we are there for them. We serve patients of any kind - generally underserved, uninsured patients - anyone who might need the help can come in and be seen by a doctor."

New on Staff Nurse

RAHMA Clinic now has a new on staff Nurse! Nurse Noreen Haq is now responsible for patient follow-ups. We are very excited to have her working on our team!
